

The Tweak Monsters

BAND STORY

The Tweak Monsters are an anonymous underground duo of DJs/producers from Los Angeles who were put on this earth to crank out spooky electronic (mostly instrumental) tracks from their dungeon studio located in the basement of a private Hollywood Hills castle.

Veterans of the club scene, you might bump into them in various Hollywood nightspots but you'd never know they were The Tweak Monsters because they just won't tell you. They make music under various aliases when they're not busy hosting their weekly S&M parties and their mottos are "don't ask; don't tell" and "put that in your pipe and smoke it".

If you'd like more information, there isn't any.
